We reached a new milestone in our lives
Then there is that feeling,
that bittersweet feeling,
That mixes the joys and successful struggles of the past with the Question marks and challenges of the future.

ELECTION
TODAY

Together we have searched for knowledge
Shared in good times and tasks
Made new friends, grown more mature
And broadened our horizons.

We push forward
individually
To prepare for the time when
The future becomes the past.
The dream becomes a reality,
A life imagined becomes a life lived.

Amid the everyday confusion of life
It was good to have a place to find ourselves.
Whether in a crowd or by ourselves
Whether in studying or playing

As time goes by I realize
Just how much IJC has meant to me.
It has made me into the

Have been shaped by my

DON'T POLLUTE

It was the best of times,
It was the worst of times.
It was the age of wisdom,
It was the age of foolishness.
It was the epoch of belief.
It was the epoch of incredulity.

It was the season of light,
It was the season of darkness.
It was the spring of hope,
It was the winter of despair.
We had everything before us . . .

Groups and Speakers Extend the Scope of Student Interest

A wide range of groups and speakers enlightened and entertained the Itawamba Junior College Student Body. On November 14, "Steamboat Man! (Mark Twain on the Mississippi)" was presented in Sheffield Auditorium. The Spanish Club and the Modern Language Department presented famous Spanish guitarist, Ron Hudson. The Group from Ole Miss provided entertainment for the annual IJC beauty revue. The music for the homecoming dance was presented by PaPa Joe and Riverboat from New Orleans. The students and faculty were delighted by Grady Nutt's unique brand of humor, wit, and wisdom. Rev. Perry Tanksley of Clinton, Mississippi provided the inspiration for Religious Emphasis Week. Each of these was provided to extend the outlook of the student beyond the classroom.

Leadership

Indians' Key to Success

The Itawamba Indians concluded a brilliant season with an 8 — 3 record. This was the result of excellent coaching, endless hours of practice, and most of all — teamwork. Responsible for organizing the Indians into a winning football team was the leadership of the coaches and the boys themselves. 1974 Indians — we salute you!

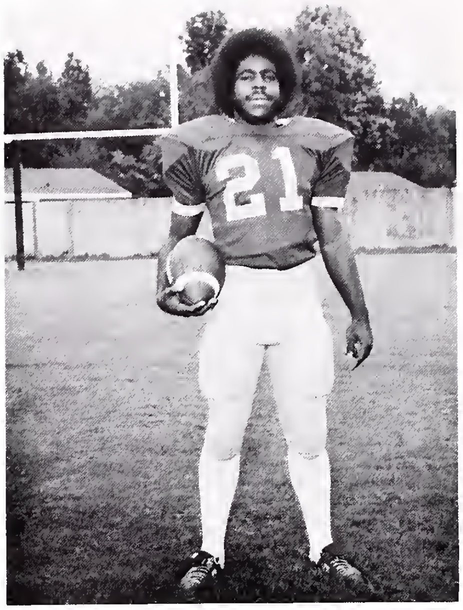
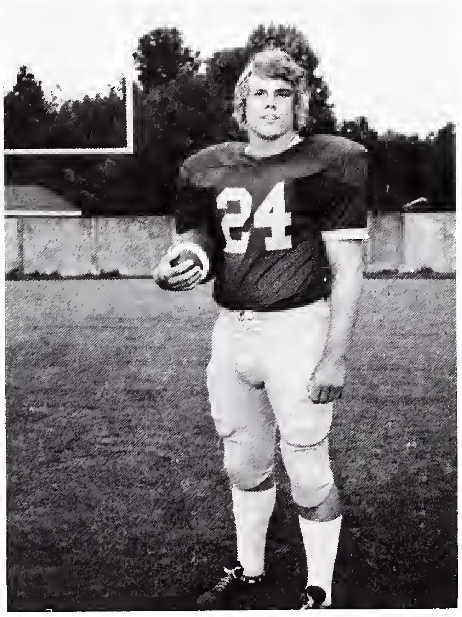
Sports: A Study of the Indivdual

Football, as with any sport, is a game of people. It is the combination of these diverse personalities that makes the game what it is. The excitement of winning, the disappointment of losing, that certain charisma which one associates with the game centers solely around the people involved — from the most inconspicuous coke-seller to the most obnoxious drunk in the stands to the star quarterback of the team. There is a strong and necessary dependency among these individuals, as no one group stands alone.

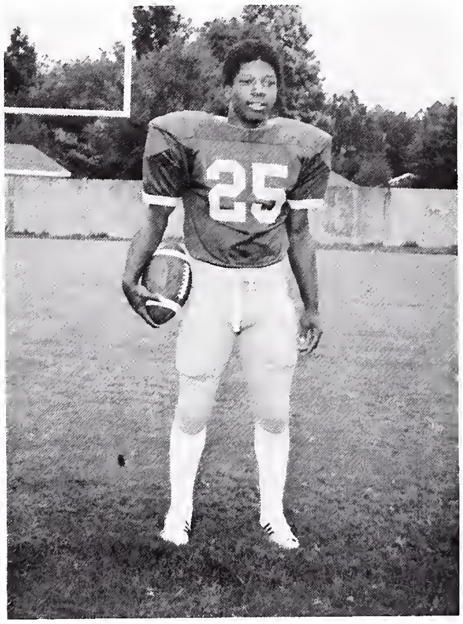


Horace Smith — End

Butch Cockrell — Halfback



David Johnson — Guard



Dennis Bolden — Halfback

James Earnest — Fullback

And so it's with this thought in mind that the following photoessay unfolds. In no way is it meant to promote fooball as the sport of IJC. It is meant to be representative of the individuals involved in any sport: the coaches and athletes appear as actors; the spectators, band, and cheerleaders, much as the audience. Or is it, perhaps, the other way around? The stage is now set and you can, if you'd like, decide for yourself.

7 Straight A First

1974 was indeed the year of the "firsts" for the IJC Indians. It was the first year for the Indians to win more than 4 games in a row and more than 6 games in a season. Picked to finish last in the conference, the "Cinderella" team finished first in the north division with the best record in the state.

A Day to Remember

Homecoming Day Climaxed With a Victory

Homecoming was a week filled with action and activities. Cheerleaders were busy making signs and more signs, clubs and classes were building floats, and the mighty Indians were preparing for the game with Northwest. Almost unexpectedly the big day came. There were last minute preparations, the parade, the reception, the alumni banquet and finally — the game! All eyes were on centerfield as the homecoming court approached their positions and the band played "Autumn Leaves." The announcer introduced Kim Stanley — Tupelo Campus maid, Beverly Young - Freshman maid, Kathy Wardlay -Sophomore maid and for the grand finale — Mr. Benjamin crowned Debbie Mayfield, football queen, and Cathy George, homecoming queen. A traditiomal IJC homecoming was climaxed with a 20-7 victory before a packed stadium. Homecoming day ended with many students still dancing to the music of Papa Joe and Riverboat. It was a day to remember!

Speed and Aggressiveness Are Keys to Indian Victory

The '74-'75 Indians were described in preseason coverage as a team of youth and inexperience. Neither quality hindered the Indians as they made every second of each game count. The Indians showed confidence and never gave up until they were on top. Only two sophomores, Tommy Armstrong — Shannon, and Wayne Goree — Shannon, returned for the Indians. Freshman are: Mike Scott — Shannon, Kim Crestman — Houlka, Johnny Coleman — Tupelo, Cliff Adair — Hatley, Mike Young — Amory, Ken McCaster — Memphis, Tenn., Tony Moore — Tupelo, Gerald Tucker — Tremont, Donald Williams — Pontotoc, Greg Kesler — Reform, Ala., Gerald Goodman — Blountstown, Fla., Larry Givhane — Shannon.

Indianettes Enjoy Victory in First Season

A new dimension was added to IJC basketball this year as girls play was resumed after a void of two decades. Coach Billy Caples handled this part of the program. The Indianettes started the season with a victory and kept the ball bouncing. Time after time the Indianettes hustled to a victory with scores to reflect their efforts. The Indianettes' line — up includes: Belinda Mask — S. Pontotoc, Charlotte Jackson — Smithville, Cathy McFerrin — Mantachie, Nanci Murphree — Houlka, Lecia Cagle — Smithville, Cynthia Birks — Nettleton, Jeannie Castle — Louisville, Renata McGregor — S. Pontotoc, Bonnie McDonald — Houlka, Debbie Springfield — Hamilton, Janice Spight — Fulton, Mary Ann Winters — Houlka.

PERSONALITIES

An honor can come to anyone.
But it can never mean the same to everyone.
An honor
May justify some sacrifice
We have made,
Underscore a discipline
We have exercised, or
Reward a talent we have developed.
Whatever the reason,
Its bestowing should strike a note
Of gladness
In all of us.
For we are all
Reflections of one another, and
One classmate's distinction
Creates a glow for each of us.

ACTIVITIES

It's a tough job —
This business of being a person.
A unique individual.
But we cannot become so obsessed
With the importance of uniqueness
That we fail to cultivate an Awareness of others.
Activities stress the importance
Of others.
Forming a group —
Realizing the warmth of Togetherness.
To be involved with more than
Academics.
We learn to work with others,
To share without dominating,
To contribute without reward.
Through activities we learn
The importance of others
As well as the importance
Of uniqueness in ourselves.

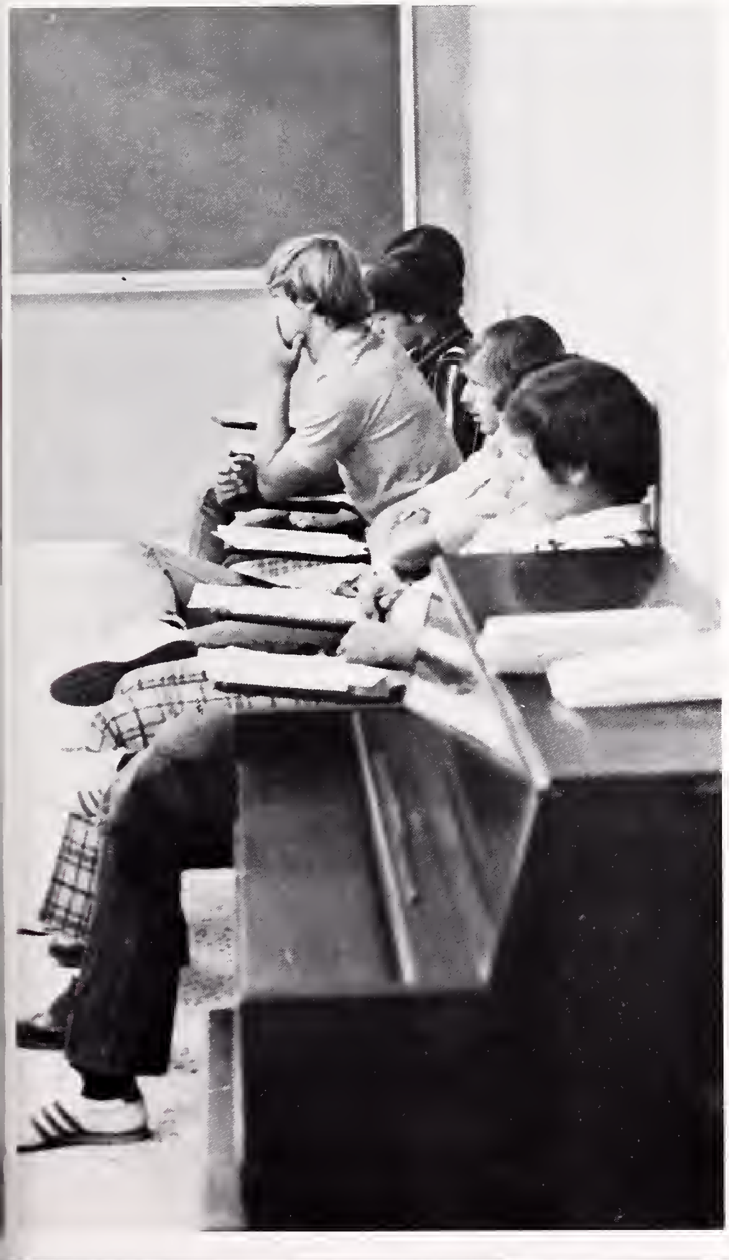
SOCIETY TODAY



ACADEMICS

Learning from the Youth of yesterday
The wisdom of today.
Being taught with their guidance
To know ourselves and our goals
Perhaps we fail to realize what
A school really is.
Classes are more than an Experience bounded by the Covers of a book.
Within them we can discover
What we are,
Or what we can be,
Or what we should be.
These realizations may be Surprising, or Frightening, or Reassuring.
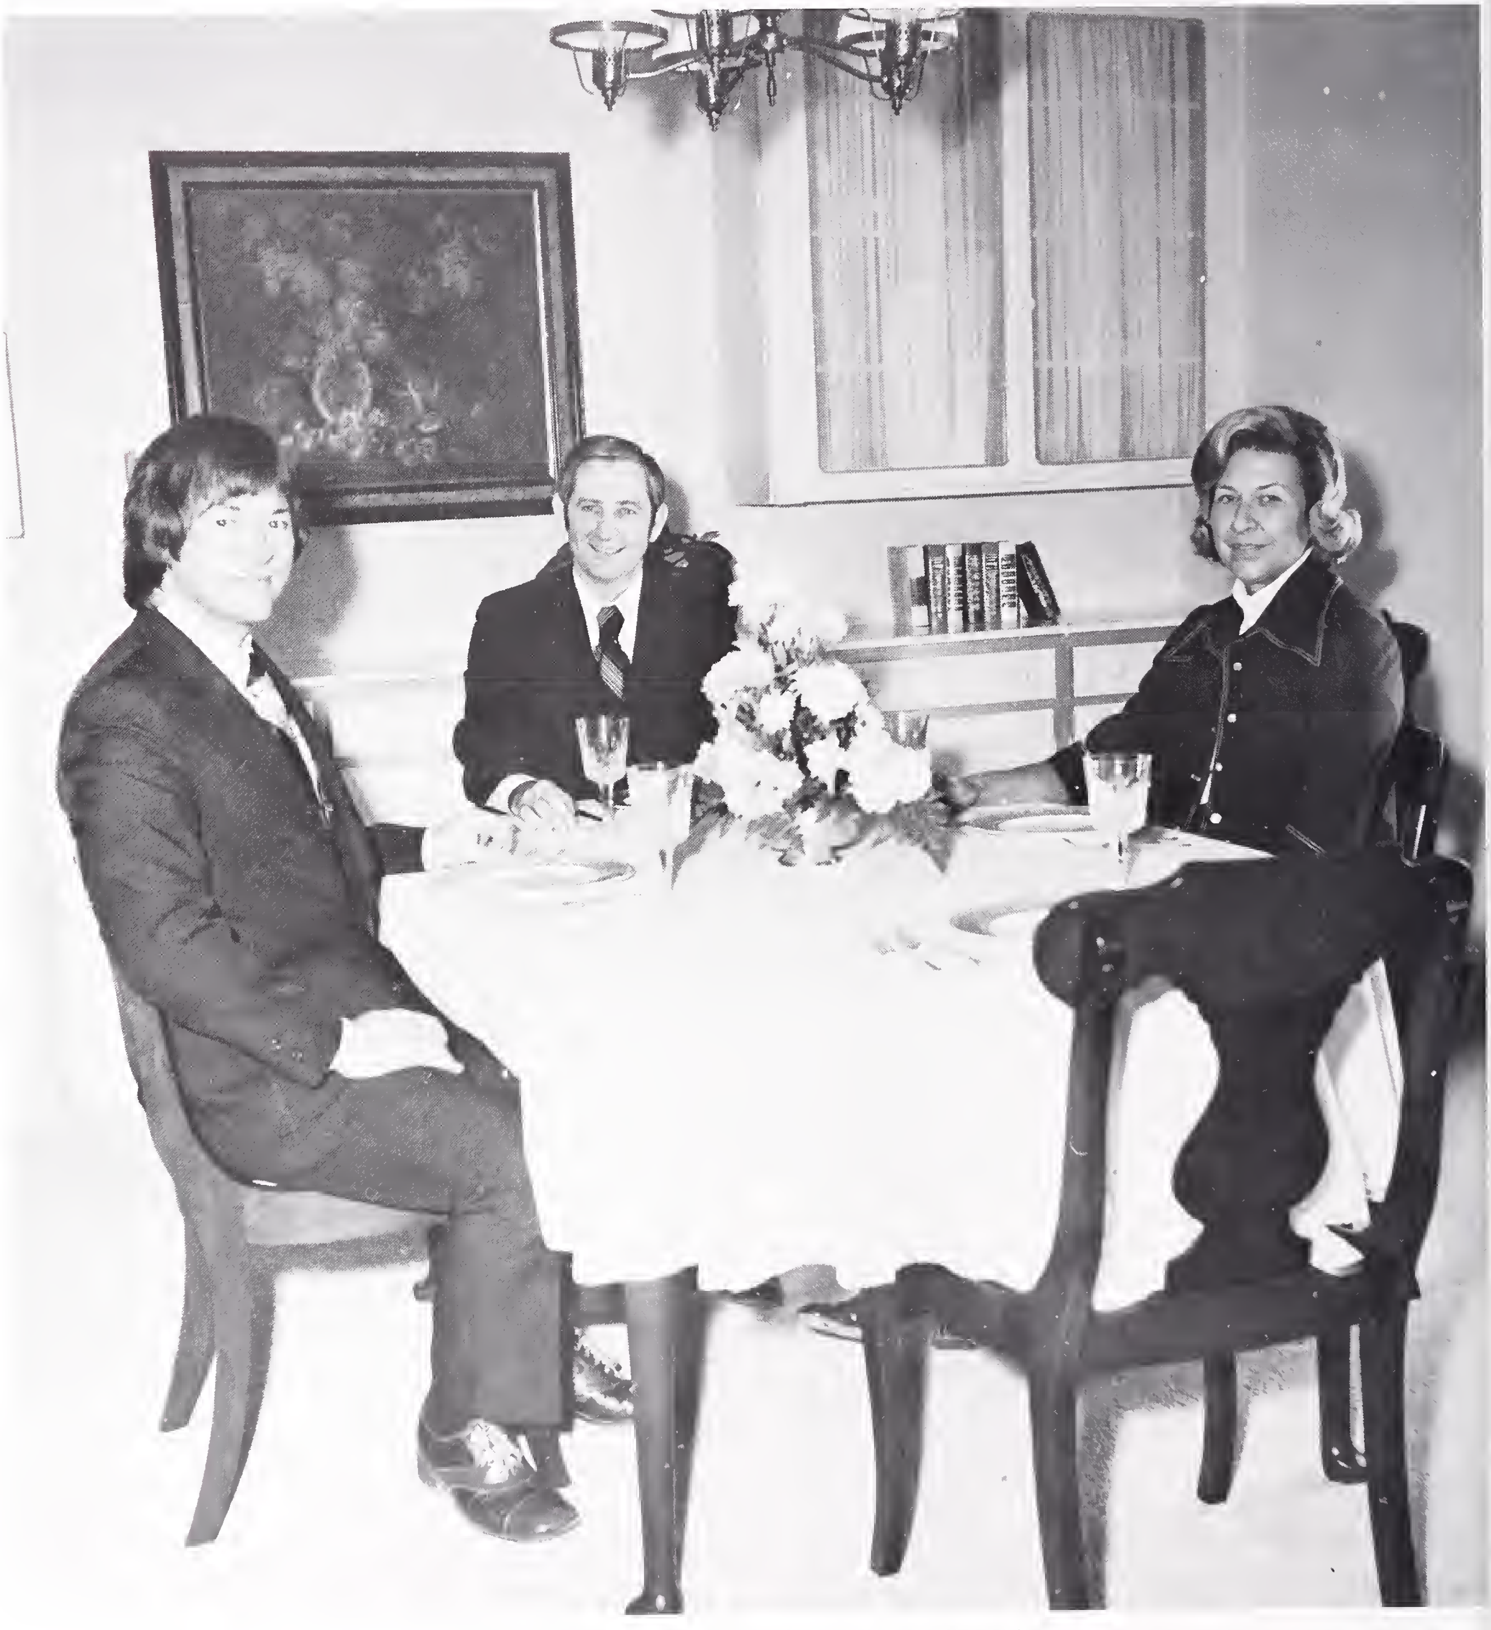
In any case, we have learned
This is what
A teacher, a subject, a classroom
— Academics —
Are meant for in the first place.

The Benjamin Family



Kent Benjamin, W. O. Benjamin, and Doris Benjamin

President Benjamin displays the fulfillment and enjoyment of his profession. His wisdom is rich with common sense and practicality. His opinions are respected for the value and thought they contain. When his mind is set on a goal, his strong will and determination prove to be his main tools in achieving the goal.

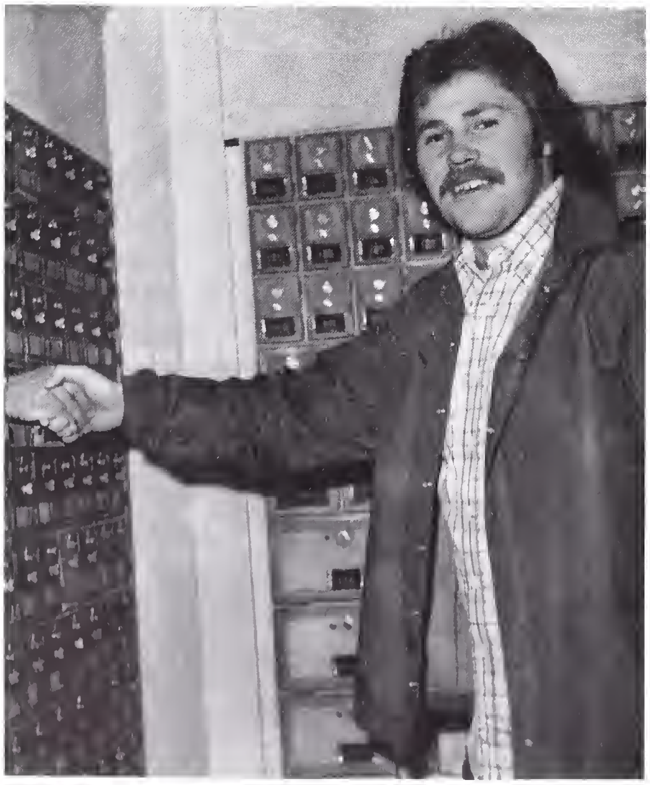
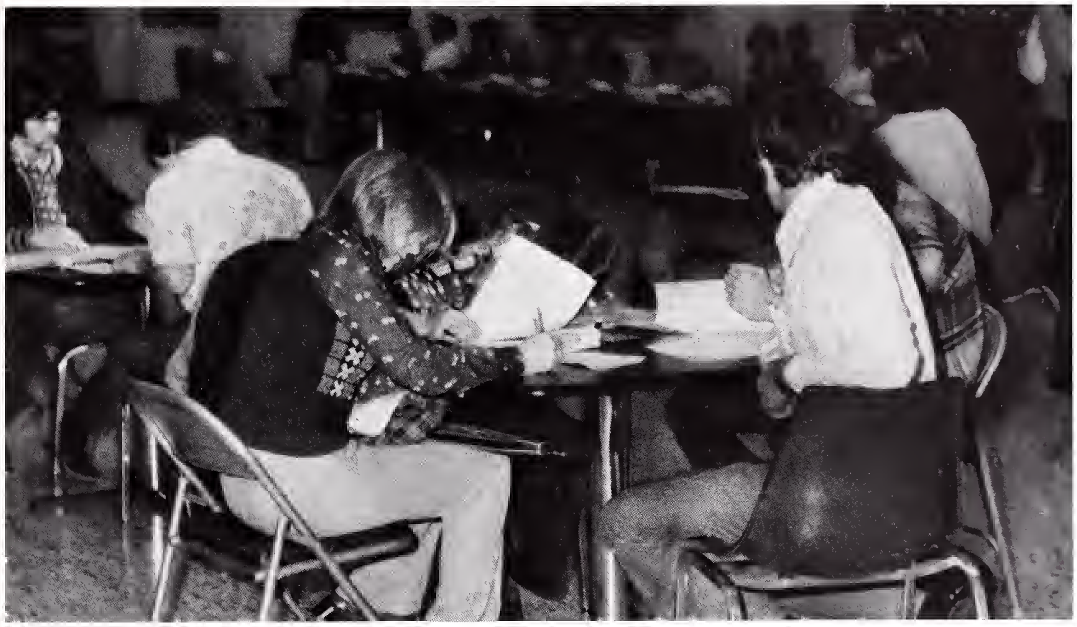
Many times we asked ourselves,
"Will I make it through the year?"
Now we look back in wonder and ask,
"Where did the year go?"
We are older now . . .
More mature . . .
More intelligent.
We've made new friends . . .
Discovered many things —
To some of us — life itself,
To others — the world.
Years from now we'll look back
What will we remember most vividly?
A special friend . . . a certain teacher . . .
A hard course . . . an unexpected grade . . . or
A noisy student center . . . quiet times . . .
An arousing ballgame . . . Homecoming 1974.





Now we can look back
And see that the whole year
Has sped by like a silent movie.
We will wonder what happened
To the young, innocent child of yesterday.
Before our very eyes
Without realizing it —
We've grown up —
Ready to leave IJC
And face our future —
A career or a senior college.
Deciding what flavor popsicle we want
Will no longer be a major difficulty.
The time has come for us
To face life.
IJC has helped to mold each of us
Into the type of person we are so
We shall be better equipped to face life.

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the Verities and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday is already a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision.
But today, well lived,
Makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness,
And every tomorrow
A vision of hope.
  Look well, therefore, to this day.
    From the Sanskrit

I shall pass through this world but once.
If therefore, there be any kindness I can show,
Or any good thing I can do,
let me do it now.
Let me not defer it or neglect it,
For I shall not pass this way again.
Etienne de Grellet

Life —
A walk through the forest
With countless ways to go
And each way holds
A different form of beauty.
In a few years IJC will be
Just a tall oak tree
We passed along our paths
A memory
Among a million.
Life —
The journey which begins
With a single step.

This is the beginning of a fresh new day.
Today comes only once,
And never again returns.
God has given me
These 24 hours to use as I will.
I must do something good with this day
And not waste it.
Each day is a little life.
This is my day of opportunity — and duty.
Today I will be filled with Courage and confidence.
What I do today is very important Because I am exchanging
A day of my life for it.
The cost of a thing is the amount of my Life I spend obtaining it.
When tomorrow comes,
This day will be gone forever,
Leaving in its place
Something I have traded for it.
In order that I shall not Forget the price I paid for it,
I must do my best,
Make it useful, profitable, successful.
My life will be richer or poorer
By the way I use it today.

Alfred A. Montapert
